

STATE OF INDIANA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
INDIANAPOLIS

PROCLAMATION

Executive Order

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS:

- WHEREAS, The State of Indiana works to protect, restore, and responsibly manage the state's Lake Michigan Coastal resources as part of a network of 33 other coastal states and territories through the Coastal Zone Management Program; and
- WHEREAS, in Indiana the Lake Michigan coastal region includes 45 miles of shoreline, the greatest number of Indiana's rare and threatened plant and animal species, the federally endangered Karner Blue Butterfly, and approximately 32,000 acres of parkland preserving Indiana's natural heritage, including Indiana Dunes State Park, Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore and 18 dedicated Nature Preserves; and
- WHEREAS, Indiana's coastal region includes more than 240 square miles of southern Lake Michigan, to which the State has devoted significant resources to rehabilitate the fish communities resulting in a world-class trout, salmon and near-shore fishery and a promising future for the Lake Michigan fish community through cooperative efforts; and
- WHEREAS, approximately 12 percent of Hoosiers live in the coastal region, more than 2 million people visit Indiana's 23 miles of Lake Michigan beaches annually, and boating and fishing enthusiasts have access to over 30 marinas and public fishing sites on Lake Michigan and its tributaries; and
- WHEREAS, Lake Michigan ports and harbors link Indiana to markets in the Great Lakes and the world; and
- WHEREAS, the State of Indiana's Lake Michigan Coastal Program, along with local community initiatives, is working to preserve this natural and cultural gem for the children of tomorrow;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr., Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim September 5-14, 2008 as in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

Coast Days

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 29th day of July in the year of our Lord 2008 and of the Independence of the United States 232.

BY THE GOVERNOR: M E Daniels, Jr.
